CONTINGENCY PLANNING ASSOCIATION OF THE CAROLINAS

A Professional Association

Supporting North & South Carolina's Business Continuity Disaster Recovery and Emergency Planners In the Public & Private Sectors

ESTABLISHED 1987

WHO ?

The Contingency Planning Association of the Carolinas (CPAC) is a professional peer group formed to share information about business continuity and contingency planning for the resumption of business in the event of a disaster or business interruption.

Contingency Planning and Business Continuity involves the mitigation of risks and proactive preparation for the resumption of business in the event of a disaster or business interruption.

WHAT ?

- Provide a forum for the exchange of ideas, topics, information, and best practices in business continuity.
- Promote awareness of business continuity and contingency planning
- Identify common problems, propose resolutions, and share lessons learned.
- Identify vendor resources, which may facilitate effective disaster recovery or mitigation.
- Provide CEUs to maintain professional certification.
- Facilitate public/private sector cooperation during regional events.

WHEN & WHERE ?

Information about NC and SC Chapters, along with the location and time of meetings is posted on CPAC's website, www.cpaccarolinas.org and published through emails from our list-server.
